"Jesus, remember me,
when you come into your kingdom"

11.11.24

Gathering Hymn

Gather, gather,
Gather in the light of his flame and we'll
Gather, gather,
Shout! Praise! Glorify his name!

We come to remember
we come to remember
Those who went before us,
those who went before us.
Proclaim, proclaim, and we'll

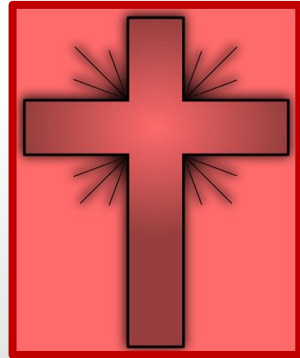

Gather, gather,
Gather in the light of his flame and we'll
Gather, gather,
Shout! Praise! Glorify his name!

We come to remember
we come to remember
Those who died for freedom,
those who died for freedom
Proclaim, proclaim, and we'll

WELCOME

PEACE

Scripture Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia,
give thanks to the Risen Lord,
Alleluia, alleluia,
Give praise to his name.

Do not let your hearts be troubled.
Have faith in God;
In my Father's house there are many dwelling places.
I am going to prepare a place for you.
I will come back again and take you to myself.

A reading from the Book of Wisdom

The souls of the people who have died and who know God's love are in the hands of God, and no suffering will ever touch them. We thought that their leaving us here behind on earth was a disaster but really, they are at peace. They are now with God: full of hope and life that never ends.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Remembrance Poem

In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
we remember them.

In the wind blowing and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.

In the opening of buds and the birth of spring,
we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.

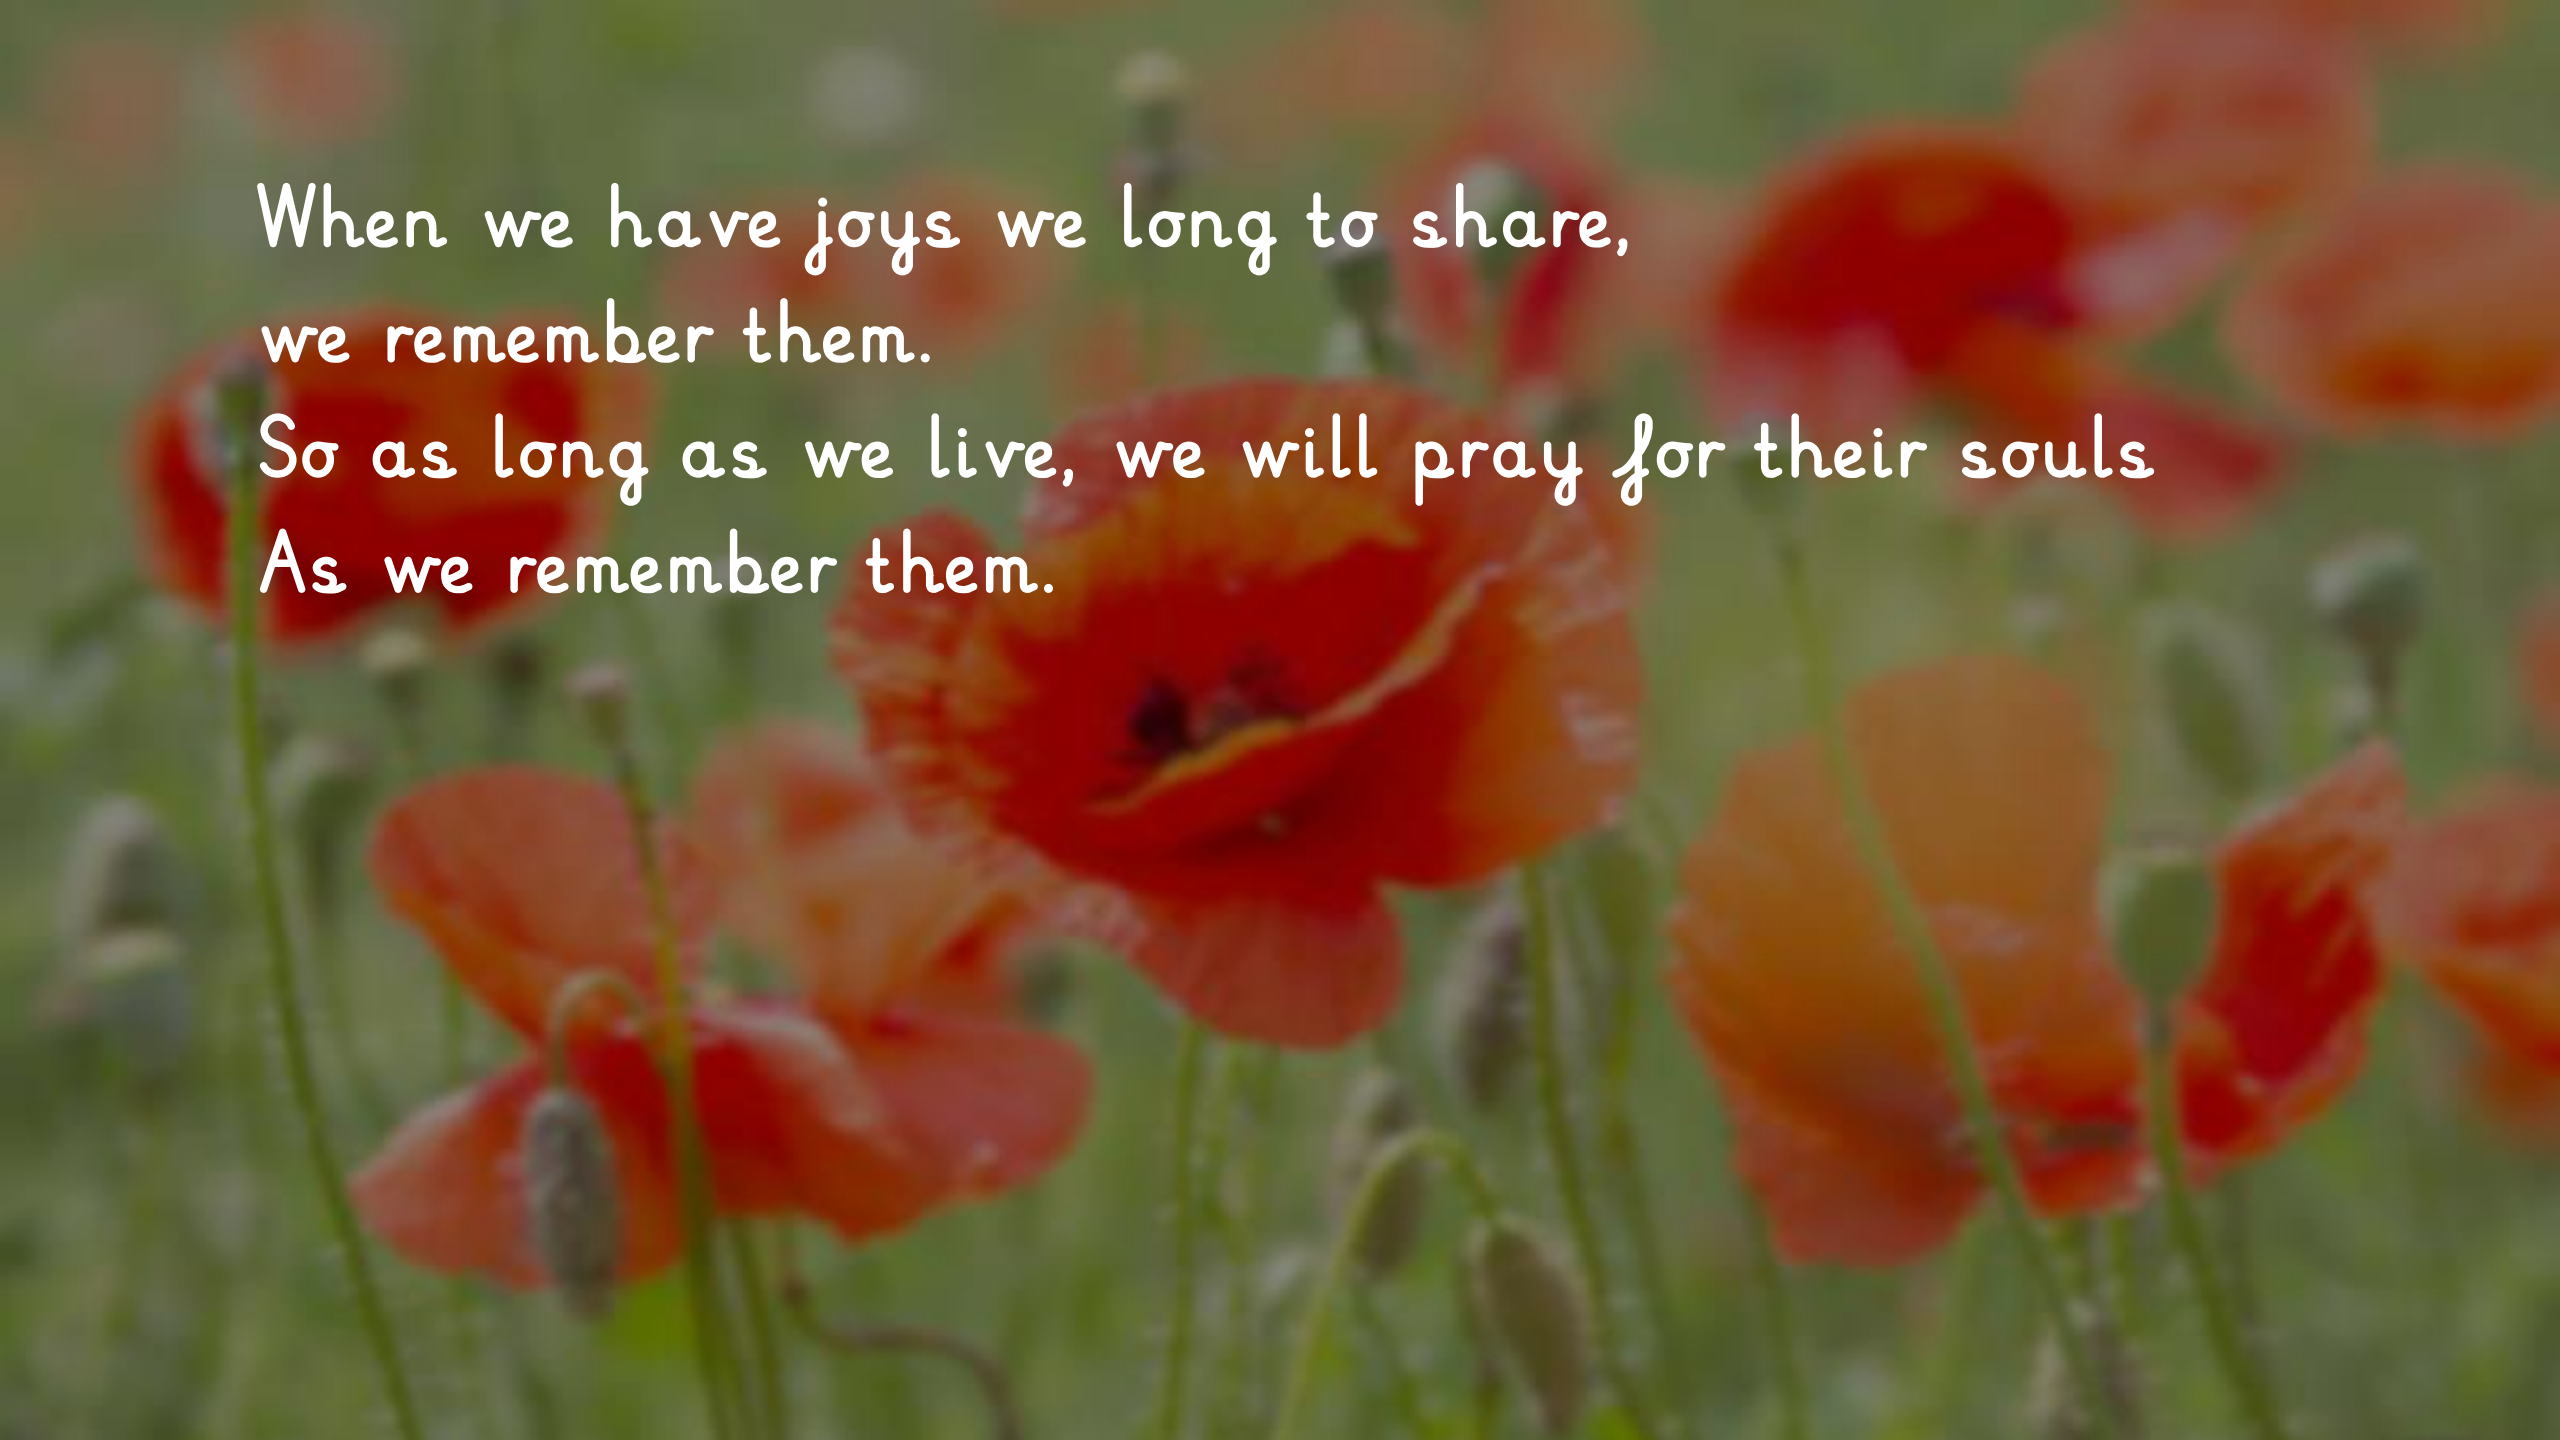

In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of Autumn
we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends.
we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.

When we are sad and sick at heart,
we remember them.

A field of vibrant red poppies with dark centers, set against a soft-focus green background. The text is overlaid in a white, monospaced font.

When we have joys we long to share,
we remember them.

So as long as we live, we will pray for their souls
As we remember them.

Remember

Remember, remember, those who fought and fell so we could be free,
the sacrifice they made;
so brave, with valour their lives they gave.
Gone, but they live on in memory.

So, bow your head now,
standing still in silence we will all pray,
to learn and live in peace and justice
on Remembrance Day.

November, November, the clock strikes ten and then, eleven will bring
The silence of respect for those that history can't forget.
Now for them a song of thanks we sing.

So, bow your head now,
standing still in silence we will all pray,
To learn and live in peace and justice
on Remembrance Day.

The image features a soft-focus background of a field of red poppies. In the foreground on the right, a single red poppy is in sharp focus, showing its dark center and vibrant petals. The overall color palette is dominated by warm, orange-red tones.

Remembrance Day

Never forget, Always remember.

Poppy Reflection

We bring before you Lord all the men and women who have died in active service in wars all over the world. As we honour their courage and cherish their memory may we never forget their sacrifice.

Eternal God, hear our prayer.

Eternal God, we pray for the families who are mourning the death of their loved ones who fought for the freedom of our country that they will be comforted in their sadness.

Eternal God, hear our prayer.

We pray for all members of the armed forces who have been injured because of war. Please be with them in their suffering and help them get well soon.

Eternal God, hear our prayer

Eternal God, we pray for all the animals who were used in war to transport people safely around and pigeons and dogs who were used to take messages.

Eternal God, hear our prayer.

Eternal God, we pray for people in Ukraine and Gaza that the suffering will soon stop so the people can all live in peace and safety again.

Eternal God, hear our prayer.

Eternal God, we pray for people that we have loved and known who have sadly passed away. May they have a good after life with Jesus.

Eternal God, hear our prayer.

We will now pray together

Eternal rest give unto them, O Lord,

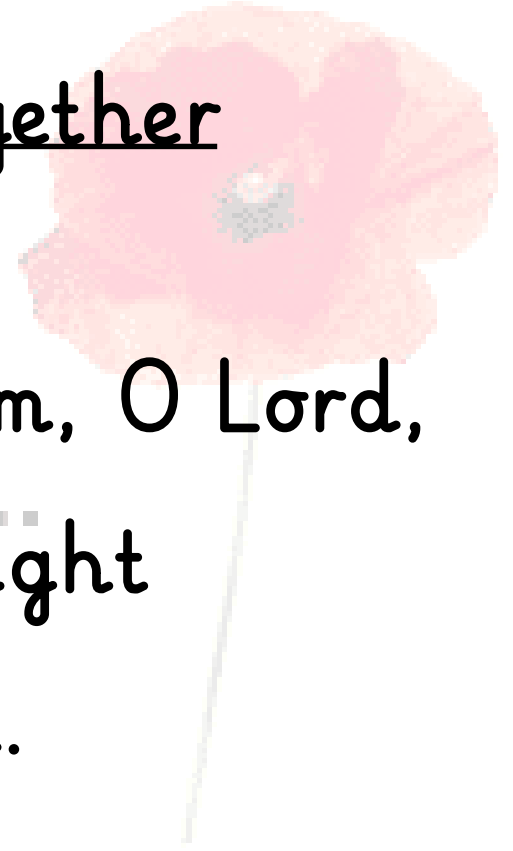

We will remember them...

and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace.

Amen.

Final Hymn

Those who have fallen from our sight who rest within the heart of God.
Lest we forget the price you paid,
we will remember you.

*We will remember,
we will remember,
we will remember you.*

Those who have fallen from our skies
the many tears, the broken lives.
Lest we forget the price you paid,
we will remember you.

*We will remember,
we will remember,
we will remember you.*

Those who have disappeared at sea who fought for peace and liberty
Lest we forget the price you paid,
we will remember you.

*We will remember,
we will remember,
we will remember you.*

Those who have fought with eager grace and have been lost without a trace.
Lest we forget the price you paid,
we will remember you.

*We will remember,
we will remember,
we will remember you.*

Our Go Forth Message is to write a prayer for someone you know who has died or for the men and women who died in the wars. We will present our prayers at Mass on Thursday.
