Gathering Hymn

Jesus, you can use my hands,
use my hands to serve you in the world.
Jesus, you can use my hands:
my hands are yours, my hands are yours.

*I am a disciple for you, Jesus;
to bring Good News,
to shine for you.*

Jesus, you can use my feet,
use my feet to walk beside you, in the world.
Jesus you can use my feet:
my feet are yours, my feet are yours.

I am a disciple for you, Jesus;
to bring Good News,
to shine for you.

Jesus, you can use my voice,
use my voice to praise you in the world.
Jesus, you can use my voice;
my voice is yours, my voice is yours.

I will be the light to shine for Jesus,
I will be the gentleness of his grace.
I will be a sign for all of his love and mercy:
Jesus, I will shine for you,
Jesus, I will shine for you.

Jesus, you can use my life,
use my life to serve you in the world.

Jesus, you can use my life:

what's mine is yours,

what's mine is yours,

what's mine is yours,

what's mine is yours.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

There was once a man who was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho when robbers attacked him and beat him up, leaving him half dead. It so happened that a priest was going down that road; but when he saw the man, he walked on by on the other side. In the same way a Levite also came there, went over, and looked at the man, and then walked on by on the other side. But a Samaritan who was travelling that way came upon the man, and when he saw him, his heart was filled with pity. He went over to him, poured oil and wine on his wounds, and bandaged them; then he took him to an inn, where he took care of him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper.

Take care of him, and when I come back this way, I will pay you whatever else you spend on him.

And Jesus concluded,

In your opinion, which one of these three acted like a neighbour towards the man attacked by the robbers?

The teacher of the Law answered,

The one who was kind to him.

Jesus replied, You go, then, and do the same.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Final Prayer

Lord God, thank You for all that You have given us to explore and be curious about in our lessons in school and our learning outside of school.

Guided by Your Holy Spirit, inspire us as we journey through this half term, as we seek to put our learning into action.

Help us to be active like the disciples and courageously cast our nets out into the deep, ready to be engaged within the wonderful world You have created, as we strive to be active to change what we can, with Your help, for the better. In the Name of Jesus, Your Son, we make our prayer.

Amen.

Final Hymn

To the God who cannot die, I say yes my Lord.

To the one who hears me cry, I say yes my Lord.

To the God of the oppressed, I say yes my Lord.

To the God of all justice, I say yes my Lord.

*I say yes my Lord, in all the good times
through all the bad times,*

I say yes my Lord, to ev'ry word you speak.

To the Father who made me I say yes my Lord.
To the Son who conquered death, I say yes my Lord.
To the Spirit, Lord of all, I say yes my Lord.
To our God, the Trinity, I say yes my Lord.

*I say yes my Lord, in all the good times
through all the bad times,
I say yes my Lord, to ev'ry word you speak.*
